THE WATERFRONT

Explore the trails

The Port of Everett has miles of waterfront trails for you to explore.

Travel to the Jetty

Set sail or paddle on over to the 2-mile stretch of sandy beach.

Kayak or standup paddleboard

You can rent a kayak or paddleboard from KayakShare, a self-service kiosk at Jetty Landing Park.

Dine in or take out

The Port has all the menu items you'd expect from a Pacific Northwest seaside town.

Watch for wildlife

The Everett waterfront is home to all sorts of native wildlife, including shore birds, seals, sea lions, whales and more.

Catch of the day

Grab your tackle box and cast a line from the Port's fishing dock located at Jetty Landing.

Pit stop at parks and open spaces

The Port has plenty of parks and open spaces for you to get outside, stretch out and enjoy the rest of the summer sun.
